National Taiwan Normal University
Graduate Institute of Sustainability Management and Environmental Education
Guidelines for the Graduate Student Scholarship

Approved at the 5th Institute Affairs Meeting of Academic Year 2022-2023 on November 30, 2022
Approved by the Scholarship Management Committee for Academic Year 2022-2023 on March 10, 2023

I. Purpose: The TPCA Environment Foundation has established these Guidelines to cultivate talent in environmental education and sustainability management, build a foundation for industry-academia collaboration, and encourage currently enrolled graduate students to conduct research on issues related to sustainable development.

II. Eligible Recipients: Currently enrolled students of the Graduate Institute of Sustainability Management and Environmental Education, National Taiwan Normal University.

III. Number and Amount of Awards: Six recipients shall be awarded each year, with each recipient receiving NT$20,000.

IV. Eligibility Requirements and Conditions:

(1) Applicants must have achieved a GPA of at least 3.38 in the preceding semester and be conducting research on issues related to sustainable development.

(2) Each recipient may receive this scholarship only once.

V. Application Period and Procedure: Applications shall be submitted by the end of November in accordance with the announced schedule, together with the required application form.

VI. Review Procedure: Applications shall be reviewed by the Institute Affairs Meeting. The list of scholarship recipients shall be provided to the donor for record.

VII. Custody and Use of Funds: The scholarship fund shall be deposited into the University Endowment Fund and used for scholarship purposes.

VIII. Implementation and Amendments: These Guidelines shall take effect after approval by the Graduate Institute of Environmental Education Institute Affairs Meeting, filing with the Scholarship Management Committee, and approval by the President of the University. The same procedure shall apply to any amendments.